

Quad City Caring Awards Nomination Form

Do you know someone who exemplifies the value of caring and whose unselfish contributions to our community need recognition?

The Community Foundation of the Great River Bend is now accepting nominations for the Quad City Caring Awards. The criteria are simple. Tell us about someone in up to 500 words, who best personifies caring, and would be a worthy role model to be emulated by others. We seek to honor those who have demonstrated selflessness, exhibited a long-term commitment to service and the betterment of our Scott and Rock Island county communities. We will make five grants of $1,000 to honor the five QC Caring Award Winners. The grants will go to the nonprofits that nominate the winners. One of the five awards will be reserved for a young person between the ages of 6 and 21.

A citizen committee of community leaders will select the five Quad City Caring Award Winners. All nominees will be recognized at the Foundation's Annual Celebration on September 28, 2010. All winners will be honored by having their stories available at www.cfgrb.org so that people of all ages may be inspired by their words and actions.

The deadline for nominations for the 2010 Quad City Caring Awards is August 10, 2010.

Nomination Process FAQ

What characteristics and accomplishments are you looking for in a Quad City Caring Award candidate?

Caring Award recipients are role models who exemplify an extraordinary commitment to public service and social responsibility. We seek to honor those who have demonstrated selflessness, exhibited a long-term commitment to service and the betterment of society, and who have had a significant impact on the lives of others in our community. We particularly look for those whose efforts will last beyond their lifetime.

How do I nominate someone for a Quad City Caring Award?

Simply complete the form on the front of this sheet and submit it along with a written summary explaining why you think your nominee should be recognized. You can include newspaper articles, letters, and any additional information to support your nomination.

What is the Quad City Caring Awards nomination process?

All of the nominations we receive are acknowledged, reviewed, and evaluated. The Community Foundation of the Great River Bend staff and volunteers review every nomination we receive. A citizen committee of community leaders will review the nominations and select five Quad City Caring Award Winners. The five winners will be notified so that they can attend the Annual Celebration on September 28, 2010.

How are Caring Award recipients honored?

Recipients are invited to attend the Foundation's Annual Celebration. We present an engraved glass award to each winner. Each Quad City Caring Award Winner will be honored by a $1,000 grant in their name. Recipients are also profiled on our web site at www.cfgrb.org.

May I nominate someone who was nominated in the past but was not selected?

Yes, we encourage you to do so. Many worthy nominations are received each year and we honor only five of them. To be considered, prior nominees must be resubmitted.
